

William H. Devine
Vice President, Legislative Affairs
AT&T California

Bill Devine, Vice President, Legislative Affairs is responsible for statewide legislative and governmental affairs activities in California. He was appointed to his current position in January 2006, following the merger between SBC Communications Inc. and AT&T Corp.

Previously he ran AT&T's Sacramento office for 10 years as Vice President of Government Affairs. He was appointed to head government and legislative affairs in Sacramento in 1996, managing policy issues and legislation for all AT&T lines of business.

He joined AT&T in 1984 in Los Angeles as Vice President of Government Affairs responsible for the California and Hawaii Congressional Delegations and also represented AT&T before the City and County of Los Angeles and other local governments. Prior to the move to Los Angeles, he served as Chief of Staff for three U.S. Congressmen in Washington, D.C.

Devine holds a Master's degree from George Washington University and a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from California State University, Fullerton.

He resides in Granite Bay with his wife Joanne, a retired public school teacher, and two children.